

TRUE OR FALSE?

'Group dynamics' refers to how group members interact with each other, both within groups and also between groups.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

It's natural to be drawn to people who appear similar to us. There might be a shared common interest, situation, background or culture.

HMM...

What makes you similar to your friends?

ANY THOUGHTS?

There can be minor differences between people that won't impact friendships, e.g. at home you speak a language other than English.

I WONDER...

What differences can create conflict and negatively impact a friendship group?

TRUE OR FALSE

Conformity is when an individual puts aside their personal preferences and chooses to go along with the group.

HMM...

Have you ever conformed in order to fit in?

GAME PLAN

Finding out what matters to us can help us manage feelings of pressure that come from others. How can you respond if you feel pressure to conform?
